Sydsvenska Dagbladet 100th Anniversary Fund
(93275)

The foundation is hereby accepting applications for the following scholarship.

Purpose: Scholarship for students at Lund University studying to become journalists. The scholarship is intended to facilitate their studies and provide an opportunity for vocational training at a Swedish or international newspaper. Applicants are to provide a detailed account of their background and how they intend to use the scholarship.

Amount: SEK 30 000

The award decision will be made by the board of the foundation.

Application
Applications for scholarships from the foundation are to be submitted through the Lund University application system for scholarships and grants, which can be located via:

http://www.lunduniversity.lu.se/current-students/financial-matters/scholarships-for-current-students/scholarships-from-swedish-foundations

The application, along with a Ladok transcript and all other relevant documentation, must be received through the application system no later than 5 April 2019. Applications submitted in a way that does not comply with the instructions above will not be processed.

Disbursement
Scholarships awarded to cover the costs of the applicant’s activities at the University will be paid directly to the applicant’s department. In such cases, the costs stated in the application are to exclude VAT. The department will deduct the amount required to cover its overhead costs, in accordance with the University’s regulations that state that externally funded research is to carry its own costs.

Scholarships awarded for other purposes will be paid to a personal bank account or equivalent. In such cases, the costs stated in the application are to include VAT.

Ex officio

Emma Haverlind